ORDER

15 Currently before the Court are a Motion for Admission of Marcia Mitchell (#2), Motion
16 for Admission of Jonathan Peck (#3), Motion for Admission of William Tamayo (#4), Motion
17 for Admission for Sirithon Thanasombat (#5), and the EEOC's Unopposed Motion for Stay with 18 Extension with Request for Expedited Ruling (#6).

19 DISCUSSION

20 On September 25, 2013, Plaintiff U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission
21 ("EEOC") filed a Title VII civil rights complaint against Defendant Wells Fargo Bank, N.A.
22 (Compl. (#1)). The EEOC has not yet served the complaint.

23 On September 27, 2013, EEOC attorneys Marcia Mitchell, Jonathan Peck, William 24 Tamayo, and Sirithon Thanasombat moved for admission to appear in this Court pursuant to 25 Local Rule IA 10-3. (See Mot. for Admission (#2, 3, 4, 5)).

26 On October 1, 2013, Plaintiff filed a motion to stay the litigation and extend all deadlines
27 due to the imminent federal government shutdown. (Mot. to Stay (#6) at 1). Plaintiff asserts 28 that EEOC lawyers and legal staff will be prohibited from engaging in litigation activities during the federal government shutdown. (Id. at 2). Plaintiff requests that this Court stay the litigation

1 for the duration of the shutdown and extend all deadlines that occur during the shutdown for
2 the same time period as the shutdown. (Id.). Plaintiff provides the example that if the EEOC
3 remains without funding from October 1 through October 7, 2013 then any deadlines during 4 that period should be extended for seven days. (Id.).

5 The Court denies Plaintiff's request for a stay. The Court notes that Plaintiff
6 commenced litigation on September 25, 2013 and has not served the complaint to Defendant.
7 Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(m), Plaintiff has 120 days to serve the 8 complaint, a period of time that will exceed any government shutdown. As such, the Court
9 finds that a stay is unnecessary in this case and denies the motion.

10 Additionally, Nevada Local Rule IA 10-3 provides that: "Unless otherwise ordered by 11 the Court, any nonresident attorney who is a member in good standing of the highest court of 12 any state, commonwealth, territory or the District of Columbia, who is employed by the United 13 States as an attorney and, while being so employed, has occasion to appear in this Court on 14 behalf of the United States, shall, upon motion of the United States Attorney or the Federal 15 Public Defender for this District or one of the assistants, be permitted to practice before this 16 Court during the period of such employment." Nev. Loc. R. IA 10-3 (emphasis added).

17 The Court denies the motions for admission at this time. Before the Court will permit
18 the EEOC attorneys to practice before this Court, the Court requires a showing that the 19 Nevada admitted Assistant United States Attorneys in our judicial district are incapable of 20 handling this matter and, more importantly, make a showing that petitioners are willing to abide 21 by the ethical standards of this Court and the State Bar of Nevada by not filing frivolous and 22 time-wasting motions.

23 CONCLUSION

24 For the foregoing reasons, IT IS ORDERED that the Motion for Admission of Marcia 25 Mitchell (#2) is DENIED.

26 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Motion for Admission of Jonathan Peck (#3) is
27 DENIED.

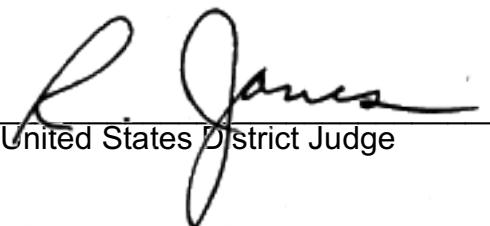

28 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Motion for Admission of William Tamayo (#4) is

1 DENIED.

2 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Motion for Admission for Sirithon Thanasombat
3 (#5) is DENIED.

4 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the EEOC's Unopposed Motion for Stay with 5 Extension with Request for Expedited Ruling (#6) is DENIED.

6 Dated: This 2nd day of October, 2013.
